

produced and saved from the leased premises.

2nd. To pay to first party One Hundred Fifty Dollars each year in advance for the gas from each well where gas only is found, while the same is being used off the premises, and the first party to have gas free of cost to heat 5 stoves in dwelling house on said premises during the same time.

The party of the second part agrees to complete a well on said premises within the time specified below, or pay at the rate of fifty cents an acre in advance for each additional twelve months such completion is delayed from the time above mentioned for the completion of such well until a well is completed, and it is agreed that the completion of such well shall be and operate as a full liquidation of all rent under this provision during the remainder of the term of this lease.

The party of the second part shall have the right to use gas, oil and water from wells, springs or streams produced on said land for its operation thereon, except water from wells of first parties.

When requested by first parties, the second party shall bury its pipe lines below plough depth on cultivated land.

No well shall be drilled nearer than 200 feet to the house or barn on said premises.

Second party shall pay for damages caused by it to growing crops on said lands.

The party of the second part shall have the right at any time to remove all machinery and fixtures placed on said premises, including the right to draw and remove casing. All payments which may fall due under this lease may be made direct to Chas. Haley and George W. Adams, or deposited to their credit in First National Bank of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

2nd, party to commence a well on said premises within 30 days from the date the title is made perfect in these lessors. Notice of same to be given by lessors.

The party of the second part its successors and assigns, shall have the right at any time on payment of One Dollars to parties of the first part, its successors and assigns, to surrender this lease for cancellation, after which all payments and liabilities thereafter to accrue under and by virtue of its terms shall cease and determine.

All covenants and agreements herein set forth between the parties hereto shall extend to their heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.
