

1st. To deliver to the credit of the first party, its successors or assigns, free of cost in the pipe line to which it may connect its wells, the equal 1/8th part of all oil produced and saved from the leased premises.

2nd. To pay first part One Hundred Fifty Dollars each year in advance for the gas from each well where gas only is found, while the same is being used off the premises, and the first party to have gas free of cost to heat five stoves in dwelling house on said premises during the same time.

The party of the second part agrees to commence a well on said premises immediately, from the date hereof, and it is agreed that the completion of such well shall be and operate as a full liquidation of all rent under this provision during the remainder of the term of this lease.

The party of the second part shall have the right to use gas, oil and water from wells, springs or streams produced on said land for its operation thereon, except water from wells of first party.

When requested by first party, the second party shall bury its pipe lines below plough depth on cultivated lands.

No well shall be drilled nearer than 200 feet to the house or barn on said premises.

Second party shall pay for damages caused by it to growing crops on said lands.

The party of the second part shall have the right at any time to remove all machinery and fixtures placed on said premises, including the right to draw and remove casing. All payments which may fall due under this lease may be made direct to Tulsa Lime Stone Ballast Company or deposited to its credit in First National Bank, Tulsa Oklahoma.

The party of the second part its successors and assigns, shall have the right at any time on payment of One Dollar to party of the first part, its successors or assigns, to surrender this lease for cancellation, after which all payments and liabilities thereafter to accrue under and by virtue of its terms shall cease and determine.

All covenants and agreements herein set forth between the parties hereto shall extend to their successors and assigns.
