

day of January, 1909, and purporting to convey unto W. A. Plummer, John A. McKinney and Ben F. Draper all of her undivided interest in and to the following described lands within the County of Tulsa and State of Oklahoma, and more particularly described as follows:

The Southwest Quarter of the Northwest Quarter of Section One (1) and the South Half of the Northwest Quarter and Lots Five (5) and Six (6) of Section Two (2) all in Township Nineteen (19) North, Range Fourteen (14) East, containing One Hundred and Sixty (160) Acres, more or less and being the allotment of the said Stephen Jacobs, ~~as a~~ full-blood citizen of the Creek Nation.

And the Court having heard the testimony of the witnesses, the argument of counsel, and being well and sufficiently advised in the premises, finds:

1st. That Stephen Jacobs, a full-blood citizen of the Creek Nation, died intestate within the territory now embraced within the County of McIntosh, and State of Oklahoma, of which he was a resident at the time of his death, on or about the 15th, day of October, 1900, leaving as his heirs at law, Joseph Jacobs, his son and Lizzie Gray, his wife, both of whom are adults and full blood citizens of the Creek Nation, and that he left no issue surviving born since the 4th, day of March, 1906.

2nd. That the said Stephen Jacobs left as a part of his estate his allotment as a citizen of the Creek Nation, and the same being the land hereinbefore particularly described and that said deceased was both the legal and equitable owner thereof at the time of his death and upon his death the same descended to his heirs at law, above mentioned, and that the said Lizzie Gray now has a good and lawful right to sell and convey her interest in the same.

3rd. That the said Lizzie Gray has executed ^{general} warranty deed of the date of the 2nd, day of January, 1909, purporting to convey her interest in the land above described unto W. A. Plummer, John A. McKinney and Ben F. Draper, for and in consideration of the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, and other good and valuable considerations.

4th. That said land is rolling prairie land, with some rocks on it, and the interest of the said Lizzie Gray is of the reasonable value of Six Hundred Dollars; and that the consideration paid by the said W. A. Plummer, John A. McKinney, and Ben F. Draper, as shown by the evidence herein, is a fair, valuable and reasonable consideration for the land above described.

5th. That the said Lizzie Gray fully understands the nature and effect of said transaction of conveyance.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the deed executed by said Lizzie Gray unto the said W. A. Plummer, John A. McKinney and Ben F. Draper on the 2nd, day of January, 1909, and conveying her interest in the premises above described, said deed having been presented to the court for its inspection, be and the same is hereby in all things approved and confirmed.
