MORTGAGE OF REAL PROPERTY.

THIS INDENTURE, Made this 1 day of October A. D., 1907, between T. S. Truelove of Tulsa Ind. Ter. and Clair Truelove his wife, and John E. Mills of Tulsa Ind. Ter. witnesseth, that

WHEREAS, the said T. S. Truelove & Clair Truelove are justly indebted to the said John E. Mills in the sum of Five Hundred DOLLARS ($ 500.00) which is evidence by their certain promissory note of even date herewith, to-wit:

One note due April 1st, 1907, for $ 500.00; One note due 190 for $ 190 and one note due 190 for $ 190

NOW, THEREFORE, the said T. S. Truelove and Clair Truelove his wife, for the better securing the payment of the money aforesaid, with interest thereon according to the tenor and effect of said note above mentioned, do hereby grant, bargain, sell and convey unto the said John E. Mills his heirs and assigns forever, the following described real estate, to-wit:

Lot one (1) in Block nine (9) in Lindsay's second addition to Tulsa Indian Territory with all the improvements thereon at the present time, or that hereafter may be placed thereon, together with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging. TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the above granted, bargained, and described premises unto the said John E. Mills his heirs and assigns and unto their own proper use, benefit and behoof forever.

AND WHEREAS, For the further security of said indebtedness, the said parties of the first part, covenant and agree with the said party of the second part, to keep the improvements on the said property at all times in a state of good repair and constantly insured for the benefit of the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns in one or more insurance companies satisfactory to the said party of the second part, against fire, lightning or tornadoes. Should the party of the first part make default in the performance of any of these stipulations, the said party of the second part may immediately perform and discharge the same, and all accounts so expended by the said party of the second part, heirs or assigns, in paying said taxes, insurance premiums, loans or special assessments or in protecting said title, or making said repairs, shall become a debt due in addition to the indebtedness aforesaid, and secured in like manner by this mortgage, and shall bear interest from the time of the payment thereof at the rate of eight per cent per annum payable on demand.

And for the consideration aforesaid, and for divers other good and valuable considerations, I, Clair Truelove wife of said T. S. Truelove do hereby release and quit-claim unto the said John E. Mills his heirs and assigns, all my right, claim or possibility of dower in and out of the aforescribed premises

CONDITIONED, However, that if the said T. S. Truelove & Clair Truelove heirs, executors, or administrators, shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid to the said John E. Mills his executors, administrators, or assigns, the aforesaid sum of money, with interest thereon, according to the tenor of said note, then this instrument shall be void otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hand and seal on this the day and year first above written.
