THIS INDENTURE, Made this 4th day of September A. D. 1906, between Mary E. Lear of Tulsa, Ind. Ter. and John W. Lear her husband his wife and Jesse L. Stigleman of Richmond, Ind., witnesseth that

WHEREAS, the said Mary E. & John W. Lear and Jesse L. Stigleman are justly indebted to the said Jesse L. Stigleman in the sum of Three Hundred no/100 DOLLARS, ($ 300.00) which is evidence by their certain promissory note of even date herewith, to-wit:

Principal One note due Sept 4th, 1907, for $ 300.00; interest March 4th, 1907, for $
One note due Sept 4th, 1907, for $; and one note due , 1907, for $

NOW, THEREFORE, the said Mary E. Lear and John W. Lear her husband his wife, for the better securing the payment of the money aforesaid, with interest thereon according to the tenor and effect of said note above mentioned, do hereby grant, bargain, sell and convey unto the said Jesse L. Stigleman His heirs and assigns forever, the following described real estate, to-wit:

The South Sixty (60) Feet of Lot Nine (9) in Block One Hundred and Thirteen (113) in Tulsa Creek Nation Indian Territory according to the Original town of Tulsa as approved by the Secretary of the Interior April 11th, 1902.

with all the improvements thereon at the present time, or that hereafter may be placed thereon, together with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the above granted, bargained, and described premises unto the said Jesse L. Stigleman His heirs and assigns and unto His own proper use, benefit and behoof forever.

AND WHEREAS, For the further security of said indebtedness, the said parties of the first part, covenant and agree with the said parties of the second part, to keep the improvements on the said property at all times in a state of good repair and constantly insured for the benefit of the said parties of the second part His heirs and assigns in one or more insurance companies satisfactory to the said parties of the second part, against fire, lightning or tornadoes. Should the parties of the first part make default in the performance of any of these stipulations, the said parties of the second part may immediately perform and discharge the same, and all accounts so expended by the said parties of the second part, heirs or assigns, in paying said taxes, insurance premiums, liens or special assessments or in protecting said title, or making said repairs, shall become a debt due in addition to the indebtedness aforesaid, and secured in like manner by this mortgage, and shall bear interest from the time of the payment thereof at the rate of eight per cent per annum payable on demand.

And for the consideration aforesaid, and for divers other good and valuable considerations, I, John W. Lear husband of said Mary E. Lear do hereby release and quit-claim unto the said Jesse L. Stigleman His heirs and assigns, all my right, claim or possibility of dower in and out of the aforesaid premises

CONDITIONED, However, that if the said Mary E. & John W. Lear their heirs, executors, or administrators, shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid to the said Jesse L. Stigleman His executors, administrators, or assigns, the aforesaid sum of money, with interest thereon, according to the tenor of said note, then this instrument shall be void otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF We have hereunto set Our hand & on this the day and year first above written.
