

I.

The said party of the first part agrees to give to the said second part for her entire maintenance, and support all household furniture belonging to said parties and six hundred dollars, the said six hundred dollars to be paid to the party of the second part as follows, to-wit:

Twenty five dollars per month until the said six hundred shall have been paid but in the event the party of the first part should become sick or in need of more than twenty five dollars per month, then the party of the first part agrees that he shall pay to the party of the second part the sum of fifty dollars per month until the said six hundred dollars shall have been paid.

II.

It shall be lawful for said parties, in the future, to live apart and separate without restraint or control of the other and without hindrance and molestation as fully and completely as if said parties were unmarried.

III.

That said second party hereby agrees to accept said six hundred dollars as a full and complete settlement of all property rights between the parties hereto and the party of the second part hereby agrees to immediately quit claim her interest to the party of the first part in and to the following real estate to-wit:

Lots 1, 2, 3, and 4, in Block 3, in the Town of Sperry, Oklahoma, and the party of the second part also agrees to relinquish, release, give up, transfer and set over to the party of the first part all of her title and interest in and to any and all personal property belonging to the party of the first part and hereby and herein and by this instrument does sell, assign, relinquish, transfer and set over to the party of the first part all of her title, claim and interest in and to any and all personal property or interest that she may have in personal property now held by the parties of the first and second part as husband and wife. The consideration for said transfer being included in the six hundred dollars given by the first party to the second party.

IV.

The party of the second part agrees that so long as the first party shall duly keep and perform the conditions and agreements by him made herein, she will not, at any time hereafter, contract any debt or incur any charge or liability whatsoever in her own behalf for which the said party of the first part, or his property or estate shall or might become liable and will keep the first party free and harmless from all such debts and actions, damages and liabilities thereby incurred or thereunder.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, that these articles of agreement shall be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of both parties hereto or of either of them.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.
