COMPARED

THIS AGREEMENT Made this 16th day of June, 1922, between ALTWIL OIL COMPANY, a Corporation, party of the first part, and JOHN M. McFADDEN and W. P. KEEGAN, parties of the second part,

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS THE party of the first part owns the entire working interest in a certain oil and gas lease located in Tulsa County, Oklahoma, and specifically described as follows:

The East half of the Northeast quarter of section twenty-eight (28) and the West half of the Northwest quarter of Section twenty-seven (27) all in the township seventeen (17) North, Range thirteen (13) East.

WHEREAS the parties of the second part desire to undertake the operation and development of the above described lease free of all expense to the party of the first part, for the consideration hereinafter appearing:

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) by each of the parties hereto to each of the others in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and in further consideration of the premises, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

(1) The party of the first part agrees to give to the parties of the second part the exclusive right to operate and develop the lease above described, for a period of As long as Productive by 2nd parties from the date hereof, upon condition that the parties of the second part shall as promptly as practicable begin to operate and develop said lease and to keep the same in operation at least to the extent required to keep said lease alive and in full force and effect, and upon the further condition that such operation and development by the parties of the second part shall be free of all cost, charge or expense to the party of the first part.

(2) The party of the first part further agrees that, as compensation for such operation and development, the said parties of the second part shall be entitled to receive six-eighths of the income from said lease.

(3) The parties of the second part agree to take over the operation and development of said lease, free of all cost, charge or expense to the party of the first part, and develop the same, for the consideration mentioned in numbered paragraph (2) hereof.

(4) The parties of the second part further agree to keep said lease in operation, without interruption, at least to the extent required to keep the interest of the party of the first part therein alive and in full force and effect.
