

by Bert Lee and Lee his wife.

Said first parties hereby covenant that they are owners in fee simple of said premises and that they are free and clear of all incumbrances.

That they have good right and authority to convey and incumber the same and they will warrant and defend the same against the lawful claims of all persons whomsoever. Said first parties agree to insure the buildings on said premises in the sum of $----- for the benefit of the mortgagee and maintain such insurance during the existence of this mortgage. Said first parties agree to pay all taxes and assessments lawfully assessed on said premises before delinquent.

Said first parties further expressly agree that in case of a foreclosure of this mortgage, and as often as any proceedings shall be taken to foreclose same as herein provided, the mortgagor will pay to the said mortgagee Fifty & No/100 dollars as attorney's or solicitor's fees therefor, in addition to all other statutory fees, said fee to be due and payable upon the filing of the petition for foreclosure, and the same shall be a further charge and lien upon the said premises described in this mortgage, and the amount thereof shall be recovered in said foreclosure suit and included in any judgment or decree rendered in any action as aforesaid, and collected, and the lien thereof enforced in the same manner as the principal debt hereby secured.

Now if said parties shall pay or cause to be paid to said second party, its successors or assigns said sums of money in the above described notes mentioned, together with the interest thereon, according to the terms and tenor of said notes and shall make and maintain such insurance and pay such taxes and assessments then these presents shall be wholly discharged and void, otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. If such insurance is not effected and maintained, or if any and all taxes and assessments which are or may be levied and assessed lawfully against said premises, or any part thereof, are not paid before delinquent then the mortgagee may effect such insurance or pay such taxes and assessments and shall be allowed interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum until paid and this mortgage shall stand as security for all such payments. And if said sum or sums of money, or any part thereof, is not paid when due, or if said insurance is not effected and maintained, or any taxes or assessments are not paid before delinquent, the holder of said note and this mortgage may elect to declare the whole sum or sums and interest thereon due and payable at once and proceed to collect said debt, including attorney's fees and to foreclose this mortgage; and shall become entitled to possession of said premises.

Said first parties waive notice of election to declare the said notes due as above stated and also the benefit of stay, valuation or appraisal laws.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands the day and year first above written.
