

grounds, terminals, and other railway purposes in or through any land held by any Indian Tribe or Nation person individual or municipality in the Indian Territory, or in or through any lands in said Territory which have been or may hereafter be, allotted in severalty to any individual Indian or other person under any law or treaty whether the same have or have not been conveyed to the allottee under the act of Congress approved February 25 1902 entitled "an act to grant the right of way through the Oklahoma Territory and the Indian Territory to the Erie & Anadarko Railway Company and for other purposes"

And whereas, the railroad of the railway company has been located through over and across the said lands hereinafter described: -

And whereas, correct maps of the said line of railroad of said railway company, including that portion of the line so located through over and across said lands herein-after described, have been duly filed in the Department of the Interior and also with the United States Indian Agent for the Indian Territory and also with the Principal Chief of said Cherokee Tribes of Indians, and with the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes.

And whereas, Amicable settlement has been made by the Railway Company with the party of the first part for the right of way through said lands hereinafter described and for all land taken and all damage done, or to be done by the construction of said railroad and the taking of said land which said railway company has appropriated under said act:

And whereas, pursuant to said amicable settlement, said Railway company has paid to the party of the first part, the sum of Ten ^{no} $,