

Assignment

I now solemnly swear that I, Mrs. W. C. Hughes, of Tulsa Oklahoma, and indebted to said person in considerable sum of money, which I am unable to pay, at present, in full, and I am desirous of conveying all my property for the benefit of all my creditors without any preference or priority.

Now therefore I the said Mrs. W. C. Hughes, in consideration of the sum of one dollar and of one dollar to me paid by Mrs. C. T. Miller, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, the receipt of which I hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold, assigned, transferred and set over and by these presents do grant, sell, assign, transfer, convey, and unto the said Mrs. C. T. Miller, all my lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods, chattels, property, and rights in action of every name, name, name and description, wherever the same may be, except such property as is by law exempt from execution. To have and to hold the same unto the said Mrs. C. T. Miller, in trust, to sell and dispose of the said real and personal property, and to collect the said rights in action, with the power to compound for the said rights in action taking a part for the whole where the said Mrs. C. T. Miller, shall deem it expedient so to do - and then in trust to apply the proceeds of the said property and rights in action in the following manner:

(1) To pay the costs and charges of these presents and the lawful expenses of executing the trust hereby created and the wages or salaries actually owing to the employees of the said Mrs. C. T. Miller.

(2) To distribute and pay the remainder of said proceeds to the addition of the undivided, and the said Mrs. C. T. Miller, for all debt said C. T. Miller owes

I may be owing or indebted to any person not named
