

no special mode of sale was required ^{by said will of the said decedent} and that said sale was legally conducted fairly conducted; that the sum paid was more than 90% of the appraised value of said land; and that no greater sum than above specified could be obtained and;

It further appearing to the court that the said executrix filed her return of said proceedings of said sale on the 2 day of May, 1908, as stated herein, and, It further having been proved to the satisfaction of this court that pursuant to the order of this court made on the 2 day of May 1908 and the Statute of Oklahoma in such case made and provided, there was published in the Tulsa Daily Democrat a newspaper published daily in the county of Tulsa, state of Oklahoma, for a period of ten days before the said 6th day of June 1908, a notice that the executrix would on the said 5th day of June 1908, apply for the confirmation of the said sale of the said property herein described and;

It further having been proved to the satisfaction of this court that the said notice properly described the lands herein mentioned; properly stated the price for which the same was sold and in all ways conformed to the order of this court and the Statute of Oklahoma and;

It further having been proved to the satisfaction of this court, by the affidavit of William Stringer, Editor and publisher of the said Tulsa Daily Democrat, that the said notice was published the time required by the said order and Statute. and;

It further appearing to the court