

let to deliver to the credit of the first party five hens or carrying free of cost, in the first time to which it may come oil well, the equal one eighth part of oil produced and saved from the second premises.

2nd. To pay to the first party one hundred fifty pigs of stone, each year in advance, for the gas from each well where gas may be found, while the same is being used off the premises, and the first party to have gas free of cost to heat and light one dwelling house on said premises during the same time.

3rd. To pay to the first party — for gas produced from any oil well and used off the premises at the rate of — advance, per year, for the time during which each gas well is opened, and they were to be made each three months in advance, the half of the second party agreed to surrender a well within six months from the date aforesaid, as hereinbefore provided, or pay at the rate of two dollars per acre in advance for each section of gas within each commencement is delayed from the time aforesaid, for the commencement of said well, until a well is commenced. The above recited article shall bind to the first party in favor on to the credit of the first party at the Office of Notary Public of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and it is agreed that the completion of said well, shall be and shall be a full completion of all work.
Under this provision during the running of the term of said lease, the half of the second party shall have the right to receive gas and water