

That at the time the said petition was signed the said Frank A. Pettitt was 65 years of age, gave no intimation of his intention to get married, and it was not contemplated by the undersigned, but since the signing of the said petition the said Frank A. Pettitt has contracted marriage with one Edith Gordon, a young woman, with a small child by a former marriage, and has expressed his intention of transferring the said property to his said wife and her child, to the exclusion of the undersigned and in violation of his said promise and agreement to hold the said property in trust.

The undersigned respectfully show that they have this day filed in the County Court their petition to strike from the said petition for letters of administration, all of the said recital relative to the ownership of said property, and, praying that upon hearing of the final report, they may be adjudged to be the heirs at law of the said Barbara A. Pettitt, deceased; and that they be awarded their respective interests in said estate as provided by law, regardless of said recital in said petition.

The undersigned respectfully show further that they will insist upon their full rights in the premises, and will, if necessary, proceed in court to obtain their just, legal and equitable share of the said estate.
