Two notes of $1000.00 each both dated August 29, 1922 and due in three years.
Three notes of $500.00 each, all dated August 28, 1922 and due in three years.
One note of $300.00 dated August 28, 1922, and due in three years,
Two notes of $100.00 each, both dated August 28, 1922 and due in three years.

Said first party agrees to insure the buildings on said premises for their reasonable value for the benefit of the mortgagee and maintain such insurance during the existence of this mortgage, said first party agrees to pay all taxes and assessments lawfully assessed on said premises before delinquent.

Said first party further expressly agrees that in case of foreclosure of this mortgage and as often as any proceeding shall be taken to foreclose same as herein provided, the mortgagor will pay to the said mortgagee Four Hundred $ dollars, as attorney or solicitor's fees therefor, in addition to all other statutory fees; said fee to be due and payable upon the filing of the petition for foreclosure and the same shall be a further charge and lien upon said premises described in this mortgage, and the amount thereon shall be recovered in said foreclosure suit and included in any judgment or decree rendered in action as aforesaid, and collected, and the lien thereof enforced to the same manner as the principal debt hereby secured.

Now if the said first party shall pay or cause to be paid to said second party, its heirs or assigns said sums of money in the above described notes mentioned, together with the interest thereon according to the terms and tenor of said notes and shall make and maintain such insurance and pay such taxes and assessments then these presents shall be wholly discharged and void, otherwise, shall remain in full force and effect. If said insurance is not effected and maintained, or if any and all taxes and assessments which are or may be levied and assessed lawfully against said premises or any part thereof, are not paid before delinquent then the mortgagor may effect such insurance or pay such taxes and assessments and shall be allowed interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum, until paid and this mortgage shall stand as security for all such payments and if said sums of money or any part thereof is not paid when due or if such insurance is not effected and maintained or any taxes or assessments are not paid before delinquent, the holder of said notes and this mortgage may elect to declare the whole sum or sums and interest thereon due and payable at once and proceed to collect said debt including attorney's fees and to foreclose this Mortgage, and shall become entitled to possession of said premises.

Said first party waives notice of election to declare the whole debt due as above and also the benefit of stay valuation or appraisal laws.

In Witness Whereof said party of the first part has hereunto set his hand this 28th day of August 1922.
