Defendant.

COMPARED

No 13815.

DIVORCE DECREE.

This cause coming on to be heard before me, Valgean Biddison Judge of the District Court in and for Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, on this the 4th day of January, A.D. 1922, a regular court day of the November term of said court. Plaintiff appearing in person and by and through Nelson & Simpson her attorneys, and the defendant appearing by and through his attorneys of record Warran & Schaeffer.

The court having heard the oral testimony of witnesses, sworn and examined in open court, and being fully advised in the premises and on consideration thereof, finds that the material facts alleged in the plaintiff's petition are true, The court finds that the plaintiff at the time of the filing of her petition for a divorce was and had been for more than a year next immediately preceding the filing of her petition an actual bonafide resident of Tulsa County and State of Oklahoma.

the court finds that the parties hereto had been married as is in the petition set forth.

The court further finds that the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty towards plaintiff and of extreme cruelty towards plaintiff which entitles her to a divorce.

The court further finds that the plaintiff is without fault in the premises and that by reason of the fault of the defendant plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by this court, that the marriage relation heretofore existing between the said Blanche L. Graham and William Graham be, and the same is hereby dissolved, and both parties are released from the same.

It is further ordered adjudged, and decreed that the plaintiff have and possess as and for alimony, court cost and property settlement the following described real estate to-wit:

Lots Number Three and Four, in Block

Number Two Ramonia Addition to the city of Tulsa Tulsa County, Oklahoma, according to the recorded plat thereof.

One of which lots the court finds that the legal title to be in the defendant and the other the court finds the legal title to be in the plaintiff.

The defendant is hereby ordered to convey said premises, and the appurtenances, thereto appertaining and belonging to said plaintiff, her heirs and assigns forever
