FINAL DECREE

Now on this 10th day of September, 1921, this matter came on to be heard before me, the Judge of the County Court of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, and it appearing to the Court on satisfactory proof and evidence submitted, and it appearing to the court that all of the funeral expenses, and the medical expense of the last sickness of the Jacob C. Peters, deceased, have been fully paid, and that all debts against the deceased or allowed by the Court pursuant to law have been fully paid and satisfied, and that said estate has been fully administered as is shown by the final account of Olie Peters, administratrix of said estate, and that said estate has been fully audited and allowed by the court pursuant to notice given and served, as is shown by proof of Notice and service thereof now on file in this court and it appearing to the court that said estate is now ready for distribution.

If further appearing to the court that due notice of application for distribution of said estate, decree of heirship, and discharge of administratrix, has likewise been duly given and served pursuant to the law in such cases made and provided.

It further appearing to the court that the said Jacob C. Peters, deceased, died intestate, and that he died seized and possessed of an undivided one half interest in and to the following described real estate, to wit:

Lots 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, and 24, in Block 370, in the City of Quanah, Hardeman County, Texas, and of the value of	$75.00

this being all the real estate owned by the said Jacob C. Peters, deceased, at the time of his death, and the remaining one half interest in said property belonging to Olie Peters, at the time of the death of Jacob C. Peters.

The Court further finds that the said Jacob C. Peters, deceased, died possessed of certain personal property including cash in hand, and stock of groceries: that the said stock of groceries has all been reduced to cash by the said administratrix, and that there is now cash in the hands of the administratrix in the sum of $3,781.46.
