J. Ullery, being duly sworn, deposes and says that she is the secretary of the Ullery Investment Company, incorporated, and was the secretary of said corporation in the year 1918.

That on May 20th, 1918, the Ullery Investment Company held a regular meeting, the Minutes of which meeting were written by her and that in recording the sales of real estate made by the officers of said corporation, she listed among other real estate Lot 4, Block 1, Park Place Addition, Tulsa, Okla.

Affiant further states that on this date, October 9th, 1922, in order to more correctly describe the above mentioned property in the Minutes of the Ullery Investment Company of May 20th, 1918, she has changed the description to read the same as shown on the Statement of Ullery Investment Company, dated January 1st, 1918, to which reference is made in said Minutes, and that part of said Minutes which pertains to the sale of the above described property is now as follows:

" On motion duly made and carried the following sales of real estate by the officers of the corporation were duly approved and ratified in accordance with the records of the Secretary of the corporation.
