

In the District Court and for the Third Judicial District,
 Oklahoma at Muskogee.

Lucia Christie, Plaintiff
 -vs-
 Charles Christie, Defendant.
 Grace Webb, Co. Defendant.

State of Oklahoma to Charles Christie, Sheriff:

You are hereby commanded, enjoined and restrained by the order of the court from disposing of or in any way incumbering any of your property, whether real, personal or mixed, that you are hereby restrained from converting any stocks, bonds, mortgages, loans and claims in action into cash or other things that you are hereby enjoined and restrained from disposing of, converting into cash, incumbering in any way or disposing any other property which you may at this time own or in which you may have any right, title, interest, claim or demand either directly or indirectly, either in your own name and right, or in the name of ~~any~~ ^{any} or right of any agent, trustee, servant, employee, partner, partner or associate, that you are hereby enjoined and restrained from withdrawing, either in person directly or indirectly or by agent, servant or employee either directly or indirectly any funds, moneys, credits or other valuable things from any bank, banks, trust companies, oil and gas companies, life insurance companies or other depository or place where there may be at this time any such funds, moneys, credits or other valuable thing which you may or do own either in your own name or in which you have either directly or indirectly any right, title, claim