Mary Gallais and Blanche Gallais Barry to the Public:

Chas. W. Wortman of lawful age, being duly sworn upon oath, says: That he is the duly authorized attorney of Mary Gallais and Blanche Gallais Barry, and he executes this notice and affidavit for the reason that the facts are peculiarly within his personal knowledge; that on the 13th day of September, 1922, the said Mary Gallais and Blanche Gallais Barry instituted a suit in the District Court of Tulsa County, Oklahoma, against J. E. Burr, Nellie G. Elliott and J. W. Burr upon a certain appeal bond, praying for judgement against the defendants, and each of them, in the sum of $2600.00 with interest thereon from and after September 1, 1922; that said suit is styled and numbered as follows: Mary Gallais and Blanche Gallais Barry, plaintiffs, VS. J. E. Burr, Nellie G. Elliott and J. W. Burr, defendants, No. 20704. That the said suit is not pending and is an action for money damages and penalties due under the terms and conditions of said appeal bond executed by the said defendants.

Affiant further says that the said J. E. Burr is the owner of certain real estate, the title to which affiant is informed and believes has been heretofore fraudulently transferred by the said J. E. Burr for the purpose of hindering and delaying his creditors, and that the said J. E. Burr transferred said property to one Katie B. Lile, who in turn transferred the title to James W. Burr, a brother of the said J. E. Burr, who thereafter transferred the same to John W. Burr, who likewise transferred the said title to one R. Clyde Mills on or about May 8, 1922, and the said R. Clyde Mills transferred the said title on or about June 29, 1922, to one Harris Burr, another brother of the said J. E. Burr, and the said Harris Burr, now fraudulently holds the said title, but the said real estate hereinafter described is the property of, and is owned by the said J. E. Burr, The public and all persons interested in said real estate, or who may hereafter become interested in the same are hereby notified that the said Harris Burr is not the owner hereof, as above stated, and that the said J. E. Burr and the said Harris Burr will probably conspire and attempt to sell or transfer the said real estate for the purpose of further hindering and delaying the creditors of the said J. E. Burr, and particularly for the purpose of defeating any judgement which may hereafter be secured against the said J. E. Burr and the defendant J. E. Burr in said suit filed as aforesaid; and notice is hereby given to the public and to all persons now interested in said real estate, or who may hereafter become interested in the same that any transfer of title or pretended sale or encumbrance thereon made hereafter during the pendency of said suit for the purpose aforesaid, would be fraudulent and an action to set aside and
