Present, Honorable Ira C. Rothgerber, Judge.

egunaka Liku na Sanga kaliga sa anang Alland i kadana dia fisas nang malabaka, si milah ing a am

Frank M. Downer.

Manager of Safety and Excise and Attest: Thomas E. Bonfils, Clerk, Ex-Officio Sheriff.

BE IT REMEMBERED, that upon to-wit, the 29th day of April, A.D. 1920, the same being one of the regular days of the March Term, A.D. 1920, of said Court, the following INVENTORY was filed and approved in said Court, to-wit:

INVENTORY NO. 206015.

Book 24, page 80,

Approxed byme this 11th day of May, 1920.

Geo. W. Dunn, Acting County Judge.

State of Colorado SS City and County od Denvert

In County Court.

In the matter of the estate of William H. Thompson, deceased (Minor).

The following is a full and perfect inventory of the real and personal estate of the said deceased (minor) as far as the same has come to the possession of knowledge of the undersigned ADMINISTRATRIX of the estate of William H. Thompson, deceased.

Real Estate - NONE.

Chattel Property - 1 desk Ahove Books

Value $10.00 50.00

Interim receipt No. 1262 of the Forty Nine Creek Mining Company, 1td.of Roseland, B.C. for 400 shares in Pool, no par value stated, dated March, 1905

None

None

Certificate of stock of 1000 shares of the Wellington Gold mining and Milling Company, Colorado Corporation, dated September, 1903, par $1.00 per sh.

None

Certificate of stock of 1000 shares of The Josephone Gold and Copper Mining Company, Utah Corporation dated Nov. 1900, 1 cent par per sh.

Ceritifcate for 315 (315) shares of The Keremeos-Pontiac Mines, Ltd. British Columbia, dated March 1904, par value $1.00 per sh.

Certificate of stock for 100 shares of the Sunset Copper Mining Company, Washington Corporation, dated 1903, par value $1.00 per sh.

There is in the safety deposit box No. 189 of The Broadway Bank, subject to the control of the United States F. & D. Company in addition to the matters inventoried the following securities, which have not been inventoried in the Estate because the property of May E. Thompson, personally;

A. Two Liberty Bonds, and two receipts for Two Liberty Bonds, all four for $50.00 each, contained in an envelope registered in the United States mail and sent from Princeton, Ind, addressed to and refeived by Mrs. W. H. Thompson.

Three promissory notes hade payable to the order of $^{\rm M} \cdot$ H. Thompson, each for the sum of \$700.00 dated July 1, 1919; signed by 0. R. Smith and Annie, Smith due in one, two and three years after date, with 8% interest per an.

The note due in 1920 is endorded: "Pay to the oder of May E. Thompson W. H. Thompson."

The other two are endorsed: "For value received, I hereby assign this note to May E. Thompson, W. H. Thompson."

It is claimed that these notes were duly delivered to the donec, and by her redelivered to the donor for safe-keeping.

Said notes are secured by Real

10 ×