

That took place in what is now Otsego County Otsego, that there had been no more term to them or either of them since the 1st day of March 1806 and that the petitioners, Daniel Barnard, in of just one legal age.

The court further finds that on the 26th day of October 1808, the petitioners made, executed and delivered to the said Charles Page and A. D. Act, the quit claim deed and thereby conveying his interest in the said described land to the said Charles Page and A. D. Act, in consideration of the sum of five hundred dollars which said consideration, the court finds is adequate and which said two presented, that the court per apparent,

Wherefore, it is by the court considered, ordered, adjudged, and decreed that the said deed, after admitted to and the same is hereby approved, according to section 9, of an Act of Congress, approved May 27th 1808, entitled, "An Act for the revision of the laws of the State of New York, and for other purposes." N. G. Hunter, County Judge.

Conspire of One County, ss.
State of Otsego, Otsego County, ss.
J. N. G. Hunter, Judge of the County Court in and for the County of Otsego, ss. do hereby certify that the instrument here attached is a true and true and correct copy of an Order of the said court appears, I record in this office.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Court at Otsego, Otsego County, this 26th day of Oct. 1808.
N. G. Hunter, Judge of the County Court.
(Court seal)
Deed, returned Oct. 27, 1808 at 10 o'clock A. M.
Attest, N. G. Hunter
County Clerk