

writing request the Trustee to cause the same to be sold in parcels. In case of such a request in writing, the sale shall, in so far as may be lawful, be made in such parcels and in such order as may be specified in such request and in the notice of such sale.

Section 5. Notice of any sale, whether under or by virtue of the power of sale herein contained or by virtue of judicial proceedings or of any judgment or decree of sale, shall state the time when and the place where the same is to be made and shall contain a brief general description of the property to be sold and shall be sufficiently given if published twice in each week for four successive weeks prior to such sale in a newspaper of general circulation in the place where such sale is to be made and in a newspaper of general circulation in the City of Tulsa, Oklahoma, or in the city of Kansas City, Missouri, and in a newspaper of general circulation in the Borough of Manhattan in the City of New York, New York, and in such other manner, if any, as may be required by law. The Trustee may adjourn any such sale or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place appointed for such sale or for any adjourned sale or sales and without further notice or publication such sale may be made at the time and place to which the same shall be so adjourned.

Section 6. Upon the completion of any sale or sales, the Trustee shall deliver to the accepted purchaser or purchasers a good and sufficient deed or good and sufficient deeds and/or other instruments conveying, assigning or otherwise transferring the properties sold. The Trustee and/or its successor is hereby appointed the true and lawful attorney, irrevocably, of the Company for it and in its name to make all necessary instruments of conveyance and transfer and for that purpose may execute in the name of the Company all necessary acts of conveyance, assignment and transfer and for that purpose may execute in the name of the Company all necessary acts of conveyance, assignment and transfer and may substitute one or more persons or corporations with like power; the Company hereby ratifying and confirming all that said attorney or such substitute shall lawfully do by virtue hereof. Nevertheless the Company, if so requested by the Trustee, shall ratify and confirm such sale or sales by executing and delivering all such proper instruments of conveyance, transfer or otherwise as may be designated in such request.

Section 7. Any sale or sales made under or by virtue of this Indenture, whether under any power of sale hereby granted or by virtue of judicial or statutory proceedings, shall divest all right, title, interest, estate, claim and demand whatsoever, either at law or in equity, of the Company, its successors or assigns, of, in and to the trust estate or any part thereof so sold and shall be a perpetual bar at law and in equity against the Company, its successors and assigns, and against any and all persons claiming or to claim the trust estate or any part thereof so sold from, through or under the Company, its successors or assigns. No purchaser at any such sale or sales or his representatives or assigns shall be bound to see to the application of the purchase money upon or for any trust or purpose of this Indenture or be answerable in any manner whatsoever for any loss, misapplication or non-application of any such purchase money paid by him, or any part thereof, or be bound to make any inquiry as to the authorization, necessity, expediency or regularity of any such sale or sales.

Section 8. The Trustee, however, instead of exercising the power of sale herein conferred upon it, may, in its discretion, and at the request of the
