STATE OF OKLAHOMA,

SS.

COUNTY OF TULSA.

S. R. Lewis of lawful age being first duly sworn, deposes and says: That he is a citizen and resident of Tulsa, Oklahoma; that he was well and personally acquainted with Ellen Gillis, deceased, who died on the 5th day of March, 1919. Affiant further says that he had known the said Ellen Gillis for more than thirty years prior to her death; that he was well and personally acquainted with all the members of her family. That her husband's name was Charles Gillis, who died in the city of Tulsa more than fifteen years ago, and left as his sole and only heirs, his widow, Ellen Gillis, now deceased, and his son, William Gillis, now deceased. Affiant further says that the said William Gillis died long before his mother, ~~Ellen Gillis died long before his mother,~~ Ellen Gillis departed this life.

Affiant further says that William Gillis had been married, but that he is advised and believes that the said William Gillis was divorced from his wife, Elsie or Esie Gillis, by order of Court; that the said William Gillis left no children and no heirs except his mother, Ellen Gillis, who survived him and who died on the date above set forth. Affiant further says that the said Ellen Gillis never had but one child, and that child was William Gillis above mentioned.

Affiant further says that he knew Dave Gillis, Lewis Gillis, John B. Gillis and Mrs. Hattie Moore, who were brothers and sister to the said Charles Gillis, husband of the said Ellen Gillis. Affiant further says that he was well and personally acquainted with William Sunday, now deceased; that the said William Sunday was a brother to the said Ellen Gillis, and in fact, next living relative to the said Ellen Gillis and her only heir at law at the time of her death. She Having no father, mother, sister or other brother living, nor issue of either. Affiant further says that he is well and personally acquainted with Jane King nee Sunday, and went to school with the said Jane King nee Sunday; that the said Jane King is a cousin of the said Ellen Gillis and was reared and educated by the said Ellen Gillis. And the said Jane King is a cousinX to the said William Sunday above mentioned and next in heir at law of the said Ellen Gillis, deceased. The said Jane King claims some interest in the estate of the said Ellen Gillis by reason of the fact that she had furnished the said Ellen Gillis some money to pay for certain improvements upon real estate owned by the said Ellen Gillis prior to the death of the said Ellen Gillis.

Further affiant sayeth not.
