

8. That the management and control of said trust estate shall be vested in the trustees herein appointed, unless additional trustees are appointed as herein provided by the said trustees herein designated.

9. The said trustees, or their successors or appointees, are hereby authorized to engage in and carry on the business of manufacturing and selling all kinds of explosive preparations, as fully as any individual might do when acting for himself; to engage in the business of manufacturing explosives and shooting oil, gas and water wells, and to do any and all other kinds of blasting, as fully and completely as any individual might do when acting for himself; to buy, sell, deal in, own and operate plants and all equipment necessary or incident to the manufacture of any and all kinds of explosives; to buy, sell, mortgage, or otherwise incumber any and all necessary machinery, equipment and plant sites necessary or incident to the successful conduct of the business of manufacturing and selling explosives of every character and kind; and to acquire all property and equipment, whether real or personal, necessary or incident to the successful conduct of the business of shooting oil, gas and water wells, and doing all kinds of blasting with explosives; to incur indebtedness in such amounts as may be deemed necessary by said trustees, or their successors or appointees, for the purposes for which this trust is organized, and to evidence such indebtedness by bill of sale, mortgage, deed of trust, or any other indebtedness on any and all of the property or properties of this trust, and any and all of the rights, franchises and privileges of this trust, as maybe necessary for or incident to the successful management and conduct of the purposes of this trust, and not in conflict with the Constitution and laws of the United States, and Constitution and laws of the State of Oklahoma.

10. That the trustees, their appointee or appointees, or successors in interest, shall hold the legal title to all property at any time belonging to this trust; and they shall have absolute control, management and disposition thereto, and shall likewise have the absolute control of the conduct of the business of this trust, and the enumeration of specific duties shall in no wise be construed as a limitation upon general powers herein conferred.

11. That the trustees shall have authority to make all such contracts as they may deem necessary, incident to or expedient for the successful conduct of the business; to make, execute and deliver bonds, transfer orders, division orders, deeds, releases, mortgages, or any other instruments of writing in any wise connected with, growing out of, or incident to the proper and successful conduct of the business herein authorized; to confer, by way of substitution, such power and authority on such officers as they may appoint; provided, however, that all officers shall be appointed from the membership of the trustees; but agents may be appointed who are in no wise connected with this trust; to collect, sue for, receive and receipt for all sums of money at any time becoming due and trust; to engage counsel and to begin, prosecute and settle suits at law, in equity, or otherwise, and to compromise or refer to arbitration any claims in favor of or against this trust; and, in general, to do all things as in their judgment will promote or advance the business which they are herein authorized to carry on, although such matters and things may not be specifically authorized herein.

12. That insofar as strangers to the trust are concerned, all acts of the trustees shall, as to strangers be deemed within the power of the said trustees, and no purchaser of any property belonging to the trust estate from the trustees, shall be bound to see to the application of the purchase money or other consideration paid or delivered by or for said purchaser, to or for the trustees.

13. The trustees shall, from among their number, appoint a President and vice
