CONTRACT.

1. Know all men by these presents, made and entered into by and between, E. L. Reese and Albert T. Patrick of Tulsa, Oklahoma, parties of the first part, and Flesher Petroleum Company, a corporation, party of the second part:

2. That the said Flesher Petroleum Company owns and operates an oil and gas mining lease covering lots three (3) and four (4) and the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter (SW) of NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of section one, township eighteen north, range twelve east, in Tulsa County, Oklahoma.

3. That on February 20, 1922, the aforesaid E. L. Reese, executed and delivered to the party of the second part an assignment of a lease originally executed to: E. M. Arnold, covering the aforesaid premises; that in consideration of the aforesaid assignment, the said Flesher Petroleum Company executed and delivered to the said E. L. Reese an instrument in writing agreeing, among other things, to hold in trust for said E. L. Reese an undivided one-eighth interest in and to the aforesaid lease and leasehold estate.

4. That thereafter the said E. L. Reese made an assignment to the said Albert T. Patrick, purporting to cover the aforesaid lease and leasehold estate.

5. That the parties of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) and other good and valuable considerations to them in hand paid by party of the second part, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, have sold and conveyed, and by these presents to hereby sell and convey to the party of the second part, all their right, title and interest in and to the aforesaid lease and leasehold estate, together with all oil and gas heretofore produced thereon; and the parties of the first part hereby authorize all purchasers of oil and gas produced on the aforesaid premises on account of the working interest to account to the party of the second party in full therefor.

6. That for and in consideration of the premises, the said E. L. Reese hereby discharged and relieves the party of the second part from all claims and obligations of every kind and character heretofore existing or arising under the terms and conditions of the trust agreement heretofore mentioned,

7. That for and in consideration of the premises as herein expressed, the parties of the first part have released and discharged, and by these presents do hereby release and discharge the party of the second part from all claims and obligations heretofore existing or claimed in favor of the parties of the first part, or either of them, against the party of the second part.

8. That the parties of the first part and of the second part hereby acknowledge full and complete adjustment of all matters of difference heretofore existing between them and do hereby make and execute this instrument for the considerations herein expressed as their formal declaration that neither party is further indebted or obligated to the other in any way whatsoever, and as their acknowledgement that all matters of difference heretofore existing between the parties have been compromised and adjusted.

In testimony whereof the parties hereto have hereunto set their names on this 15
