

whether municipal, county, state or federal, that may be levied upon said real estate, when the same shall become, by law, due and payable, and that first party will exhibit once a year, on demand, receipts of the proper persons, to said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns showing payment thereof, until the indebtedness hereby secured shall be fully paid. The said first party further agrees to constantly keep the said premises free from mechanic's liens and other liens, and to preserve and protect the security hereunder against any adverse, superior or intervening claim or interest.

Fourth: That said party will keep all buildings, fences, side-walks and other improvements on said real estate, in as good repair and condition as the same are at this date, and permit no waste; that he will at no time permit any part of the premises to be used in the conduct of any illegal or disreputable business, or such as will tend to injure or unfit said premises for general business or residence purposes; that he will permit no unnecessary accumulation of combustible material upon said premises; that he will constantly keep in ^{proper} order all pipes, connections, fixtures and attachments of every kind relating to the plumbing for the use of natural or manufactured gas or both, water supply and sewerage, furnace, steam pipes and boilers so as to prevent damage or undue risk to the property thereby, and will keep all electric light wires and connections in safe condition and properly insulated; the party of the second part reserving for himself and his representatives, the right to enter upon and inspect the premises at any reasonable hours and as often as he or they, may desire.

Fifth: That said first party will, at once, insure the buildings upon said premises against loss by fire, lightning and wind storms, to the amount of $2000.00 in insurance companies approved by said second party, and at once deliver all policies properly assigned, to said second party as collateral and additional security for the payment of said debt, interest, and all sums secured hereby, and will so maintain such insurance until said debt is paid, and if default is made therein, then said second party may so insure and re-insure said buildings, acting as agent for said first party in every particular. That every insurance policy on said premises, issued before said debt is paid, shall be assigned as collateral security the party of the second part, or assigns, as above provided, and whether the same have been actually assigned or not, they shall, in case of loss, be payable to said second party, or assigns, to the extent of their interest as mortgagee in said premises; and that said second party or assigns may assign said policies as agent of said first party to any subsequent purchaser of said premises; and that in the event of loss under such policy or policies, the second party shall have and is hereby specifically given full power to settle and collect the same and apply the amount so collected toward the payment of the indebtedness hereby secured.

Sixth: That in case the said first party shall make default in any one or more of said agreements, then the said second party, or assigns, may pay such taxes, charges, assessments, rights or impositions, and effect such insurance and protect said title against adverse claims and liens, and pay all costs thereof, and the amounts so expenses therefor, with interest at the rate of ten per cent on sums for insurance and protection of title, and to release liens, and for costs thereof, from date of such expenditures until paid, and with the penalties and rates of interest fixed by law, on such taxes, charges, assessments, rights and impositions shall be considered a sum the repayment of which is to be hereby secured.

Seventh: That if the makers of said note or notes shall fail to pay any of said money, either principal or interest whenever the same become due, or in case the
