AFFIDAVIT.

COMPARED

State of Oklahoma)
County of Creek) SS

Edwin A. Ellingham, of lawful age, being first duly sworn on oath deposes and says:

That he was personally acquainted in his lifetime with Wheden B. Stone, and that he knew the said Wheden B. Stone for a period of four or five years prior to his death; that the said Wheden B. Stone died in the City of Sapulpa, Creek County State of Oklahoma, on the 1st day of June, 1916, and that he was of the age of fifty-one (51) years at the time of his death; that he left surviving him at the time of his death as his sole and only heir at law his widow, Ida M. Stone, and that the said Ida M. Stone inherited all the property left by the said Wheden B. Stone at the time of his death; that the said Ida M. Stone inherited said property by reason of the fact that said property was accumulated by the said Wheden B. Stone through the joint industry of himself and the said Ida M. Stone.

Affiant further states that in an action originally instituted in the County Court of Creek County, Oklahoma, by Anna B. Stone, the mother of Wheden B. Stone against Ida M. Stone, and said Anna B. Stone claimed an undivided one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) interest in and to the estate of the said Wheden B. Stone; that said case was appealed by the said Anna B. Stone to the District Court of Creek County, State of Oklahoma, and in turn appealed to the Supreme Court of the State of Oklahoma, which last mentioned Court handed down a decision some time during the summer of 1922 adversely to the claim of the said Anna B. Stone, and that the said Ida M. Stone is the undisputed owner of all property left by the said W. B. Stone, at the time of his death by reason of the decision of the Supreme Court of the State of Oklahoma, which decision has become final.

Affiant further states that he knows of his own personal knowledge as one of the attorneys for the Administratrix of the estate of Wheden B. Stone that all of the debts against said estate and the expense of the final illness of the said Wheden B. Stone, have all been paid.

Affiant further states that the proof in the case of Anna B. Stone vs. Ida M. Stone, supra, conclusively proved that all property owned by the said Wheden B. Stone at the time of his death was acquired through the joint industry of himself and his wife, Ida M. Stone.

And further affiant saith not.

Edwin A. Ellinghausen.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of December, 1922.

(SEAL) Ona Ray, Notary Public.

My commission expires July 2, 1926.
