WAYNE I. County Treasurer
Tulsa, Oklahoma, October 25, 1922. Deputy

To whom it may come, greetings:

I, J. E. Burr and C. E. Nute of Tulsa, Oklahoma, hereby represent that they are the sole owners of a certain property in Collinsville, Oklahoma, described as follows, to-wit: All of lot four (4) Block thirty eight (38) original town of Collinsville, Okla., which property or lot has a large brick house on same from which we are collecting rentals of thirty and no/100 dollars ($30.00) per month.

And whereas, we are indbted to Green & Stowell, lawyers of Tulsa, Oklahoma, which firm consists of W. E. Green and John Stowell, in the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) evidenced by one promissory note for like amount due on demand;

Now therefore we jointly and severally for the sum of fifty dollars, receipt of which we and each of us hereby acknowledge hereby assign, sell and set over to W. E. Green and John Stowell or either of them all the rents or income of whatsoever nature from the above described property, until the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) shall have been paid, It is expressly agreed that this shall become a lien against the above described property and in the event that no rentals be paid according to this agreement then this instrument shall become a mortgage and operate with the same force and effect as a mortgage with all homestead rights waived and with an express provision for the waiver of an appraisement of said property in case of a collection of this debt under this instrument.
