LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF L. E. GRANT

I, L. E. Grant, of the City of Deepwater, Henry County, Missouri, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made, that is to say;

I.

I desire all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my personal estate as speedily as practicable after my death. It is my will that my personal estate be used to pay such debts and funeral expenses, and my real estate be not used for same.

II.

I have paid up Life Insurance policy Numbered 709333 in the Mutual Life Insurance Company, and having heretofore made certain advancements and provisions for my two sons, and desiring to make for my daughter, on that account and for other good and sufficient considerations, such provision out of my estate, in consideration of that fact and for that purpose I hereby give and bequeath unto my said daughter Mary L. Grant said life insurance policy above described, and all my personal property of whatsoever character and wheresoever situate, subject to the payment of my debts and funeral expenses out of such personal property hereinbefore provided, and I hereby give and devise unto my said daughter Mary L. Grant my real estate in the city of Deepwater, Henry County, Missouri, at this time consisting of two different pieces
