In the Matter of the Estate of G. W. Newton, Deceased, Patsy J. Newton, Executrix.

Now comes Patsy S. Newton, Executrix of the Estate of G. W. Newton, deceased, and files her petition praying the Court to make an order authorizing and directing her to make proper and legal assignments of all notes and mortgages secured by real estate situate in the State of Oklahoma, to various parties who have purchased such note and mortgages, alleging that a part of said notes and mortgages were sold by the said G. W. Newton prior to his death, and part of them were sold by this Executrix after the death of said G. W. Newton, and further stating that said notes were assigned by endorsement upon the back thereof, but that no "Assignment of Mortgage" was executed and acknowledged as provided by the Laws of the State of Oklahoma, for the assignment of such mortgages.

And the Court, having read said petition, and after hearing the evidence offered by petitioner, finds that said G. W. Newton was during his lifetime the owner of a large number of notes and mortgages secured by mortgage on Oklahoma real estate; that a part of said notes were sold by said G. W. Newton during his life time and assigned by endorsement on the back thereof, but that no "Assignment of Mortgage" was executed by him; that part of said notes have been sold by said Executrix since the death of said G. W. Newton and assigned by her endorsement upon the back thereof, but that no "Assignment of Mortgage" has been executed by her conveying such security; that the persons who have purchased said notes are entitled to an assignment of the mortgages securing the same.

It is therefore ordered by the Court that said Executrix be and she is hereby authorized and directed to execute, acknowledge and deliver to the respective purchasers of all of such notes so assigned by the said G. W. Newton, during his life time, or assigned by said Executrix after the death of said G. W. Newton, an "Assignment of Mortgage" according to the form prescribed by the laws of said State of Oklahoma, assigning to such respective purchasers the mortgage securing the notes assigned to them respectively.
