BE IT REMEMBERED, That on this 10th day of February 1923, before me JENNIE U. JOLLEY, Clerk of the Probate Court, held in and for the County of Greene, and State of Missouri, personally appeared Leonard Walker and G. A. Walker, who being duly sworn upon their ^{oaths} with depose and say that they were well acquainted with J. T. Walker, he being their brother, one of the subscribing witnesses to the will of Francis C. Wernet, deceased, filed in said Probate Court on the 1st day of February 1923, and that they know the hand-writing of said J. T. Walker, having often seen him write his name, and that to the best of their knowledge and belief the signature of said J. T. Walker, attached to the will of said Francis C. Wernet, deceased, is the proper and genuine signature of said J. T. Walker, and that said will with the signature of said J. T. Walker, thereto attached as an attesting witness, is now here exhibited to and examined by these affiants and affiants state that the said J. T. Walker, attesting witness, is now deceased, having departed this life on or about the 28th day of Dec. 1916.
