of Missouri, personally appeared Julius Seifert and Albert W. Lower, who being duly sworn upon their oaths, depose and say that they knew the handwriting of the testator Francis C. Wernet, having often seen him write his name, and that to the best of their knowledge and belief, his signature attached to the will of Francis C. Wernet, deceased, is the proper and genuine signature of said testator, and that said will with the signature of said testator thereto attached is now here exhibited to and examined by affiant.

CERTIFICATE OF PROBATE.

State of Missouri )
County of Greene ) ss.

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF GREENE COUNTY, MISSOURI,

NOVEMBER TERM, 1922.

I, JOHN H. FAIRMAN, Judge of the Probate Court, within and for Greene County, Missouri, having examined the foregoing instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of Francis C. Wernet, deceased, and signed by said Francis C. Wernet, deceased, late of Greene County, Missouri, and having seen and examined the testimony of J. C. West, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, contained in his deposition duly returned into this court, and taken before Otto Hochuli, a Notary Public, within and for Harris County, Texas, who was duly commissioned by this Court to take the same in relation to the execution of said instrument, and having heard the testimony of Leonard Walker and C. A. Walker, as to the handwriting of J. T. Walker, the other attesting witness thereto, who is now deceased, and further having heard the testimony of Julius Seifert and Albert W. Lower, as to the handwriting of Francis C. Wernet, the testator, do declare and adjudge said instrument to be the last will and testament of said Francis C. Wernet, deceased, and the same is therefore admitted to Probate.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court, at my office, this 10th day of February, A. D. 1923.
