

and described as follows, to wit:

All that parcel of land on the Northerly bank of the Battle Creek Stream; bounded North by the lands and track of the Michigan Central Railroad Company; Southeast by McCamly Street; Southwest by the Battle Creek Stream; and Northwest by land formerly owned by the estate of sands McCamly, being Eight (8) rods deep from McCamly Street; all being situate in the City of Battle Creek in said County and State;

Excepting therefrom all the right, title and interest of the grantor in that portion of the bed of the Battle Creek Stream, lying and being between the Northerly bank thereof and the center of said stream, and between the now Westerly side of the North McCamly Street bridge and a line drawn parallel with the said Westerly side of said bridge and down stream One Hundred and Thirty-two (132) feet, excepting that portion of the said river bed which may now be occupied by the foundation walls and building of grantors; together with the other reservations and exceptions contained in the Deed from Jonathan Ogden Armour and wife to William A. Knight, dated October 15th, 1902, and recorded in the Register's Office of Calhoun County, Michigan.

Being the same property conveyed to the grantor herein by deed of Armour and Company of Illinois, by Deed dated January 1, 1923, recorded in the Register's Office February 10, 1923, in Book 300, Page 402.

MICHIGAN.

71. BRANCH HOUSE. All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land situate in the City of Battle Creek, County of Calhoun and State of Michigan, known and described as follows, to wit:

All that parcel of land on the Northerly bank of the Battle Creek Stream; bounded North by the lands and track of the Michigan Central Railroad Company; Southeast by McCamly Street; Southwest by the Battle Creek Stream; and Northwest by land formerly owned by the estate of Sands McCamly, being Eight (8) rods deep from McCamly Street; all being situate in the City of Battle Creek in said County and State;

Excepting therefrom all the right, title and interest of the grantors in that portion of the bed of the Battle Creek Stream, lying and being between the Northerly bank thereof and the center of said stream, and between the now Westerly side of the North McCamly Street bridge and a line drawn parallel with the said Westerly side of said bridge and down stream One Hundred and Thirty-two (132) feet, excepting that portion of the said river bed which may now be occupied by the foundation walls and buildings of grantors; together with the other reservations and exceptions contain

72. BRANCH HOUSE. All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land situate in the City of Detroit, County of Wayne and State of Michigan, known and described as follows, to wit:

Lots numbered One (1), Two (2), Three (3), Four (4), Five (5), Eight (8), Nine (9) and Ten (10), subdivision of the East part of Lot Seven (7) Dequindre Farm, North of Gratiot Road, according to the plat thereof recorded in Liber 1 of Plates, page 279, Wayne County Records, together with any right, title or interest of the grantor in and to that part of the alley adjacent to and between lots One (1),