

mortgage the plaintiff therein shall be entitled to have a receiver appointed by the court to take possession and control of the premises described herein, and to collect the rents and profits thereof under the direction of the court, and any amount so collected by such receiver shall be applied under the direction of the court to the payment of any judgement rendered or amount found due upon the foreclosure of this mortgage.

This mortgage secures the payment of the principal note and interest thereon described and all renewals of principal note that may hereafter be given in the event of any extension of time for the payment of said principal debt or interest.

First parties hereby agree that in the event action of brought to foreclose this mortgage, they will pay a reasonable attorney's fee of ten per cent (10%) of the face of said note, to become due and payable when a suit is filed, which this mortgage also secures, and said first parties hereby expressly waive appraisalment of the real estate and homestead exemptions.

The foregoing covenants and conditions being kept and performed, this conveyance shall be void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

Witness our hands this 8th day of February, 1923.
