vs.

J. A. Wood, alias Josephine A.) Wood, Defendant.)

JOURNAL ENTRY.

Now, on the 21st day of April, 1923, being one of the regular judicial days of said court, this cause comes on to be heard in its regular order; and the plaintiff appearing by Peter Deichman, the duly appointed, qualified and acting United States Probate Attorney, and the defendant, J. A. Wood, alias Josephine A. Wood, having been three times called in open court to appear, except, demur, answer or plead to the petition of the plaintiff herein, came not, but makes default, and the court having ordered that the said defendant is in default, and having ordered that the allegations contained in the plaintiff's petition be taken as confessed; and it appearing to the court that said defendant has been duly notified more than twenty days prior to this date of the pendency of this action as required by law, by publication of notice thereof for three consecutive weeks in the Tulsa Daily Legal News, a newspaper printed and of general circulation in Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma; the first appearing in the issue dated March 6, 1923,
