Affiant, W. I. Williams, says he is a member of the firm of Davidson & Williams Attorneys of Tulsa, Oklahoma; he says that said firm had charge, as attorneys, of the settlement of the estate of Dana Hyde Pleak, deceased, who died a citizen resident and domiciled in Tulsa County, Oklahoma, on the ----day of May, 1914. He states that Dana Hyde Pleak was the wife of Dr. S. M. Pleak,. He states that he knew Dana Hyde Pleak well and at the time of her death was familiar with her business, and has been familiar with the condition of her estate ever since. He says that he knows of his own personal knowledge that at the time of the death of the said Dana Hyde Pleak, she did not owe anything whatever, and that after her death the only indebtedness against her estate were her funeral expenses, and that said expenses have been paid in full. He says that he known of his own personal knowledge that there are no out-standing claims or indebtedness whatever against her estate.

W.I. Williams.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 26th, day of January 1923.
