Now, if said parties of the first part shall pay or cause to be paid to said party of the second parties heirs or assigns, said sum of money in the above described note mentioned, together with the interest thereon, according to the terms and tenor of the same, then these presents shall be wholly discharged and void and otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. But if said sum or sums of money, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, is not paid when the same is due, and if the taxes and assessments of every nature which are, or may be, assessed and levied against said premises or any part thereof, are not paid when the same are by law made due and payable, then the whole of said sum or sums, and interest thereon, shall and by these presents become due and payable, and said party of second part shall be entitled to the possession of said premises. Said parties of the first part shall keep property in good condition and keep insurance paid during term of this mortgage.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.

Joseph Foresman,

Georgia E. Foresman.
