

Dated this 7th day of March, 1924.

Maudie C. Elliott, Court Clerk.

By R. N. Whittlesey, Deputy.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF CREEK COUNTY

OKLAHOMA.

In the matter of the estate of Dickson Wiley, deceased) Probate No. 203, F.B.

ORDER APPROVING DEED TO INHERITED LAND.

Now on this 1st day of April, 1915, came on for hearing the application of Samuel W. Brown, for the approval by this court of one certain deed described as follows, to-wit:

Warranty deed dated January, 20, 1908, executed by Louis Long to James J. Mars and Samuel W. Brown, conveying the following described land situate in Tulsa County, Oklahoma, to-wit:

The southhalf of the northeast quarter ($S\frac{1}{2}$ of $NE\frac{1}{4}$) of section fifteen (15) township eighteen (18) north, range twelve (12) east, same being duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for Tulsa County, Oklahoma, in book 35 at page 125 thereof,

The petitioner appearing in person and by his attorney, P. L. Therman, whereupon evidence is offered in support of said petition, and the Court having heard the testimony of witnesses adduced in proof of the facts of kinship as alleged in the petition and being fully advised in the premises doth find: That one Dickson Wiley, deceased, was duly enrolled full blood citizen of the Creek Nation enrolled opposite Roll No. 3894^{and} that he died in the month of April, 1903, about six miles south of the town of Bixby, Oklahoma, at what was then known as the John Buck Settlement.

That the said Dickson Wiley died intestate seized of the following described land situate in Tulsa County, Oklahoma, to-wit:

The southhalf of the northeast quarter ($S\frac{1}{2}$ of $NE\frac{1}{4}$) of section fifteen (15) and the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter ($SW\frac{1}{4}$ of $SE\frac{1}{4}$) of section fourteen (14) and the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter ($NE\frac{1}{4}$ of $NE\frac{1}{4}$) of section twenty six (26) all in township eighteen (18) north, range twelve (12) east,- same being the land, a part of which is described in the deed above mentioned approval of which is prayed for in the petition, and which said land was his distributive share of the lands of the Creek Nation and was duly allotted and patented to him by the Creek Nation.

The Court further finds that said Dickson Wiley was never married and that he left him surviving no father or mother, or wife, or issue, or brothers or sisters, but did leave surviving two first cousins, to-wit: Wanney Barnett, whose name sometimes appears as Wayne Barnett, a first cousin a duly enrolled full blood citizen of the Creek Nation, and Ben Haigle, a first cousin, a duly enrolled full blood citizen of the Creek Nation, and one Louis Long, a Uncle, who was duly enrolled citizen of the Creek Nation of the full blood.

The Court further finds that said allotment was selected by said Dickson Wiley during his lifetime under date of February 12, 1901, and that the same upon his death became an estate of inheritance and descended under the law of descent and distribution then in force in the Indian Territory to the said heirs above named.

The Court further finds that under date of January 20, 1908, said Louis Long, who
