

to second party or its assigns at least thirty days before the expiration date of such expiring insurance, all of such policies to have mortgage clause of a form satisfactory to second party or its assigns attached. If the title to said premises be transferred, the second party or its assigns is authorized as agent for the first party to assign the insurance to the grantee of the title, without any duty, however, on the second party or its assigns to do.

It is further understood and agreed that in event any taxes or assessments against said premises become delinquent or any other sums become due, the payment of which is necessary to protect the property or the rights of the second party or assigns, or in the event of the failure to procure and keep in force insurance as herein provided, the second party or its assigns may pay any such taxes or sums necessary, or procure and pay for such insurance (but there is no obligation upon the second party or its assigns so to do), and the first party agrees to repay the same immediately with interest at 10%, which sums so expended and interest shall be a lien on the real property above described and secured hereby.

It is further agreed that if and as often as this mortgage or the notes secured hereby are placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, the first party agrees to pay to the holder hereof 10% of the amount then secured hereby, which shall in no event be less than $50.00 as a reasonable attorney's fee, which is hereby agreed to be a reasonable attorney's fee and which shall be secured hereby and shall on a foreclosure hereof be taxed as costs.

It is further agreed that any expense incurred in litigation or otherwise or in the purchase of any abstract of title or continuation of title which the holder hereof may at any time deem necessary, shall be paid by the first party to the holder hereof, which sum shall be a lien on the premises above described and secured hereby.

It is further agreed that in the event of the passage after the date of this mortgage of any law of the State of Oklahoma deducting from the value of land for the purposes of taxation any lien thereon or changing in any way the law now in force for the taxation of mortgages, deeds of trust or the debts or obligations secured thereby for state or local purposes or the manner of the collection of any such taxes so as to affect the interest of the holder the whole of the principal sum secured by this mortgage, together with the interest due thereon, shall, at the option of the holder without notice to any party, become immediately due and payable.

It is further agreed that as additional collateral to secure the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, first party or its assigns all compensation or purchase money which may in any manner be received by the first party or the owner of the premises hereby mortgaged under agreement or by awards under eminent domain or taking said property for public use, and all profits, revenues, royalties, rents and benefits accruing to the said first party or the owner of the property mortgaged from said premises in any manner including and under any and all oil, gas, mineral and other leases now on or hereafter placed thereon; this agreement to terminate upon the release of the mortgage. And in the event of any default under this mortgage the owner and holder hereof shall be entitled to immediate possession of the said premises and to the appointment of a receiver without notice, which notice the first party hereby waives.

It is further agreed that upon the breach of any promise, agreement, covenant, condition or warranty herein, including the failure to pay any principal or interest secured hereby when due, or any taxes or assessments herein mentioned when due, or to keep the premises unceasingly insured and to deliver policies of insurance as herein provided, or
