LETTERS TESTAMENTARY.

State of Missouri)
City of St. Louis) SS

Know all men by these presents, that I, Kate E. O'Neil of the City of St. Louis, State of Missouri, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

I direct that all my just debts be paid out of the proceeds of my estate.

All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate whatsoever, real, personal or mixed and wherever situate, I give, devise and bequeath to my sister, Helen G. O'Neil, unconditionally and unqualifiedly to have and to hold absolutely as her own.

I do hereby appoint my sister, Helen G. O'Neil, as administratrix of this my last will and testament, and request that she be permitted to act as same without bond.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 3rd day of May, August, 1912.

Kate E. O'Neil.

Signed, published and declared by the above named, Kate E. O'Neil, to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

Hettie O'Neil,
Jessie O'Neil,

State of Missouri)
City of St. Louis) SS

Be it remembered, that on this 7th day of June, A.D. 1922, before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Probate Court of the City of St. Louis, personally came Anthony A. O'Halloran, who being by me duly sworn on his oath, says:

"I was personally acquainted with Hettie O'Neil, now deceased, whose name is written at the end of the annexed instrument in writing, bearing date the 3rd day of August, 1912, and purporting to be the last will and testament of Kate O'Neil, deceased, as one of the
