OKLAHOMA REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE.

This indenture made this 7th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty four, by and between Fred F. Brockman, and Christine Brockman, his wife, of the County of Tulsa and State of Oklahoma, parties of the first part, mortgagor; and the Aetna Life Insurance Company, a corporation, organized under the laws of the State of Connecticut, having its principal office in the city of Hartford, Connecticut, party of the second part, mortgagee;

Witnesseth, that the said parties of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of four thousand dollars, to them in hand paid, by the said party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, and sold, and by the presents do grant, bargain, sell, convey and confirm unto said party of the second part and its successors and assigns, forever, all the following described real estate lying and situate in the County of Tulsa and State of Oklahoma, to-wit:

The south half of the south east quarter, of section six (6) in township nineteen, north, range fourteen, east of the Indian Meridian, less a strip 5 feet wide off the east side conveyed to Tulsa County, for road purposes, containing 80 acres, more or less.

To have and to hold the same, with all and singular, the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, and all rights of homestead exemption and unto the said party of the second part, and to its successors and assigns forever. And the said parties of the first part do hereby covenant and agree that at the delivery hereof they are the lawful owners of the premises above granted, and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances, and that they will warrant and defend the same in the quiet and peaceable possession of said party of the second part, its successors and assigns forever, against the claims of all persons whomsoever.

This mortgage is given as security for the performance of the covenants herein, and the payment to the Aetna Life Insurance Company at its office in Hartford, Connecticut, its successors or assigns, the principal sum of four thousand dollars, according to the terms and conditions of one promissory note, made and executed by Fred F. Brockman, and Christine Brockman, parties of the first part, bearing even date herewith, with interest thereon from date, which interest is evidenced by coupon interest notes thereto attached, and the mortgagor agrees that the said mortgagee shall be subrogated for further security for the lien, though released of record, of any and all prior encumbrance upon said real estate paid out of the proceeds of the loan secured hereby, and it is hereby further agreed and understood that this mortgage secures the payment of all renewal, principal or interest notes that may hereafter be given in the event of any extension of time for the payment of said principal debt to evidence said principal or the interest upon the same during the said time of extension.

It is hereby agreed that all covenants and stipulations in these presents contained shall bind the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of the mortgagor and shall inure to the benefit and be available to the successors and assigns of the mortgagee. It is further agreed that granting any extension or extensions of time of payment of said note either to the makers or to any other person, or taking of other or additional security for payment thereof, or waiver of or failure to exercise any right to mature the whole debt under any covenant or stipulation herein contained shall not in anywise affect this mortgage nor the rights of the mortgagee hereunder, nor operate as a release
