

City of St. Louis, SS

The State of Missouri)

To all persons who whom these presents shall come, greeting:

Know ye, that the last will of Kate E. O'Neil, deceased, hath in due form of law, been exhibited, proved and recorded in the office of the Judge of the Probate Court for the City of St. Louis, a copy of which is hereunto annexed, and inasmuch as it appears that Helen O'Neil, has been appointed executrix in and by the said last will to execute the same therefore in pursuance of an order of said Court, and to the end that the property of the Testatrix may be preserved for those who shall appear to have a legal right of interest therein, and that the said last will may be executed according to the request of the Testatrix, we do hereby authorize her, the said Helen G. O'Neil, as such executrix, to collect and secure all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of the said Kate E. O'Neil, at the time of her death, in whosoever possession the same may be found, and to perform and fulfill all such duties as may be enjoined on her by said will, so far as there shall be property and the law charges her and in general to do and perform all other things which are now or hereafter may be required, of her by law.

In testimony whereof, I, George Brand, Clerk of the Probate Court, in and for the City of St. Louis, hereto sign my name and affix the seal of said Court, at office, this 23rd day of June, A.D. 1922.

(SEAL) George Brand, Clerk.

I, George Brand, Clerk of the Probate Court, in and for the city of St. Louis, certify that the foregoing letters testamentary are truly recorded in my office this 23rd day of June, 1922.
