COMPARE

W. C. Sanders, of lawful age being first duly sworn makes the following statement;

I was well acquainted with Carrie E. Merry on the 12th, day of October 1920, the date that she executed her warranty deed to C. L. Littlepage and Roy Dow, conveying lot 20 in block 2 in the College Addition to the City of Tulsa Oklahoma according to the recorded plat thereof and I had known her for quite a time prior thereto and have known her since that date, but do not know where she is at this time.

That at the time she executed said warranty deed she was living separate and apart from John Merry and that she and John Merry were not living at the time together as husband and wife and that the said Carrie E. Merry, at the time of the execution of the deed, had never occupied the said property as a homestead and said property had never, at any time, been used or occupied by the said Carrie E. Merry or John Merry as a homestead.

Further affiant saith not.
