

evidence shall be satisfactory to the Company and the Trustee, respectively, in their discretion; and said applicant shall also furnish indemnity satisfactory to the Company and the Trustee, in their discretion, and shall comply with such other reasonable regulations as the Company or the Trustee may prescribe. Bonds so mutilated and bonds so lost, if subsequently found, shall be forthwith surrendered by the holder thereof to the Trustee for cancellation and, when cancelled, shall forthwith be delivered by the Trustee to the Company.

ARTICLE SECOND

REDEMPTION OF BONDS

COMPARED

SECTION 1. The Company may at its election on any interest date pay for and redeem any one or more series of bonds, as a whole or in part, by lot in parcels of $100,000 or more, hereby secured and then outstanding and unpaid, at one hundred and five per centum (105%) of the par value thereof on such interest date with accrued interest to the date of redemption, but no series shall be redeemed in whole or in part unless and until each series issued prior thereto shall have been paid in full or redeemed by the Company. Notice of redemption of any one or more series of bonds shall be given by publication at least once a week for four successive weeks prior to the interest date on which such payment and redemption is to be made in a newspaper with daily circulation published in the City of New York, New York State, and in a like newspaper published in Tulsa, Oklahoma. If the Company shall elect to exercise the right of redemption of a part only of any series, as aforesaid, the notice of publication shall specify the numbers of the bonds to be redeemed (which previously to the publication of such notice shall have been designated by lot under the direction of the Trustee). First notice of such publication shall be not less than thirty (30) nor more than fifty (50) days prior to the date fixed for redemption. Proper notice shall be given by the Company to the Trustee at least ten (10) days prior to the date such first notice is published. Notice having been so published, said bonds shall, on the interest date designated in such notice for redemption, become due and payable with accrued interest to the date of redemption.

From and after the date of redemption so designated (unless the Company shall make default in the payment of said bonds) interest on said bonds so called for redemption shall cease and upon presentation, in accordance with said notice, at the office of the Trustee in the City of Tulsa of said bonds with all appurtenant coupons maturing on and after said redemption date, said bonds shall be paid by the Company at the rate aforesaid with interest accrued to said redemption date. If not so paid on said redemption date said bonds shall bear interest at the rate expressed therein until payment.

SECTION 2. On the deposit with the Trustee of the amount necessary so to redeem all outstanding First Mortgage Bonds, including interest thereon accrued to the date of redemption and unpaid, together with proof satisfactory to the Trustee that said notice of redemption has been published and mailed, as hereinbefore provided, or that arrangements have been made insuring to the satisfaction of the Trustee that such notice will be published and mailed, as herein before provided, and on payment to the Trustee of all its costs, charges and expenses in relation thereto and of all other sums payable hereunder by the Company, the Trustee shall, at the expense of the Company, cancel and satisfy of record this Indenture at all places where it shall have been recorded and assign, or cause to be assigned, and deliver to the Company any certificates for stock and other securities which may have been pledged by it hereunder and be then held by Trustee, and by proper instrument or instruments reconvey to the Company all other property in the trust estate. The Trustee shall apply the moneys so deposited with it to the payment of the First Mortgage Bonds at the rate aforesaid with interest accrued to the interest day designated for redemption.

SECTION 3. All First Mortgage Bonds redeemed and paid hereunder shall be cancelled
