

the said Anna T. Adams. ~~COMPARE~~

That the said Samuel Adams, deceased, ~~was~~ during his lifetime, and said Anna T. Adams lived in Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, and also lived in Hughes County, State of Oklahoma, and that the same Samuel Adams, about the time of his last illness, went into Creek County, where he died, as aforesaid, on the 13th day of February, 1911; that said Jim Adams, deceased, died on or about the 19th of February, 1911, in Tulsa County, as aforesaid.

That said Anna T. Adams on the 23rd day of February, 1911, filed her petition in the County Court of Hughes County, State of Oklahoma, praying the approval of said warranty deed, as aforesaid, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved May the 27th, 1908, and that on the 23rd day of February, 1911, said deed was duly approved by the County Court of Hughes County, State of Oklahoma in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress approved May the 27th, 1908,

That on the 24th day of February, 1911, the said Ethel Davis, together with her husband, Samuel C. Davis, conveyed to your petitioner by quit-claim deed the real estate and premises hereinbefore described, and that your petitioner, Chas. Page, has ever since, and is now, the owner of said real estate and premises hereinbefore described by virtue of said conveyance, and that ever since the execution of said deed he has been in the open and notorious peaceable and undisturbed possession thereof.

That the said Anna T. Adams, has heretofore departed this life.

That said warranty deed hereinbefore described executed by said Anna T. Adams to the said Ethel Davis was on the 21st day of June, 1923, upon the petition of Chas. Page, approved by the County Court of Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved May the 27th, 1908,

That the said Samuel Adams, shortly prior to his death, at his request and after he had taken sick, was taken by his uncle to the Indian Church House near Sapulpa in Creek County, where he died on the 13th day of February, 1911, as aforesaid.

That the said conveyance by warranty deed of said Anna T. Adams, of the real estate ^{and} premises hereinbefore described to Ethel Davis, as hereinbefore set forth, was for a consideration of Twelve Hundred ($1200.) Dollars; that said consideration was just and fair and not disproportionate to the value of the said real estate conveyed at the time of the execution of said deed, and that said sum of Twelve Hundred ($1200.) Dollars was paid by the said Ethel Davis to the said Anna T. Adams, and that she was fully advised of the nature of the said transaction, and was fully satisfied therewith.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner respectfully prays that said warranty deed heretofore executed on the 21st day of February, 1911, by the said Anna T. Adams to the said Ethel Davis, as hereinbefore described, be approved by this Court in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress approved May the 27th, 1908, entitled; "An Act for the Removal of Restrictions on part of the lands of the Allottees of the Five Civilized Tribes, and for other purposes."
