

was delivered by him to the parties last hereinbefore specifically named, but that these parties executed a mortgage to affiant which was to represent a part of the purchase price in case the sale was consummated, and through error, this mortgage was placed of record, same having been filed for record on December 3, 1904, in the office of the United States Deputy Clerk and Ex-Officio Recorder at Sapulpa, Indian Territory, and recorded in Book L at page 337 of the records thereof. Affiant promptly released this mortgage and placed his release of record. Affiant further states that the said release appears to bear the name of Albert Barnsdale, but that same was an error, as it should have read Albert Barksdale.

Affiant further states that the said Hicks, Barksdale and Lofton never were in possession of the lands described in the mortgage, or any part thereof, and that no binding contract or agreement was made with said parties and that they never asserted any right, title or interest in and to the lands therein described.

Further affiant sayeth not.
