Comes now E. G. Cunningham, who being of lawful age and first duly sworn according to law, deposes, and says:

That he is a resident of Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, and he is well acquainted with A. J. Marsh, an unmarried man, and Mollie Tenney, and A. E. Tenney her husband, and has known them for the last six years, past.

That the above named parties were the grantors in a deed of warranty, dated July 10th 1919, and filed of record July 16th, 1919, and recorded in Book 281, at Page 107 in records of the office of the County Clerk of Tulsa County, State of Oklahoma. The grantee in said deed being Annie E. Smith and the lands transferred by said deed being the South One Hundred (100) feet of Lot Three (3) in Block Seven (7) in Oakdale Addition to the City of Tulsa, Oklahoma, according to the recorded plat the eof, being 1263 and 1265 South Elgin Street.

Affiant further states that at the time of the execution of said deed and transfer of said property to the grantee named herein, that the S.54 feet of the said 100 feet was not the homestead or any part of the homestead of Mollie Tenney and A. E. Tenney, her husband, and that they did not occupy the said premises at any time as their homestead, but resided on other and different property at the time of this transfer, the other and different property being owned by Mollie Tenney and A. E. Tenney, her husband,

Further affiant sayeth not.

Witness my hand this 19th day of June, 1923.

E. G. Cunningham
