

461

6th.-- I given, devise and bequeath unto each my children, Gertrude Snediker, of Chicago, Ill., Fay W. Smith, of Jamestown, N. Y., and Bert M. Smith, of Geneva, N. Y. the sum of $100, per year, until the death of my widow, which sum shall be used in their support and maintenance, and the support and maintenance of their respective families.

7th.- I give, devise and bequeath unto my son, George C. Smith, Jr., the sum of $2000. in cash, which shall be paid to him within two years after my death, and do also hereby grant unto him the first privilege and right to purchase, at a moderate sum, to be determined by executor, what is known as the Skidmore farm, upon which I now reside, located in the town of Pomfret, in case I should die seized of, and owning the same, and my executor is satisfied my son desires to purchase said farm, as a home for himself and family, and further provided, that he shall pay down $2000. to apply upon the purchase price of said premises. In case it should be necessary for my said son, George C. Smith, Jr. in making the purchase of said place, to raise funds with which to make such purchase I authorize my executor to accept his bond therefor, that is in the payment of said balance, which bond shall be secured by a purchase money mortgage, covering said premises, such bond and mortgage to bear interest at the rate of 3% per annum, unless my son, or his issue should cease to be the owners of said premises, in which event the interest upon such bond and mortgage shall become 6%. Said bond and mortgage shall further provide for the annual payment of at least $200., my son having the option to pay more, to apply upon the principal, and shall further contain the usual insurance, tax, assessment and sixty day default clauses. Said $200. annual payment shall not include interest. My son shall bear all the expense incidental to the making and recording of all papers relating to the transfer of said property to him, including the mortgage tax.

8th.- Upon the death of my wife, I do give, devise and bequeath to my children then living, equally, share and share alike, the annual income, rents and profits of my estate, so long as they shall live, and for their support and the support of their respective families, and upon the death of either of them or should either of them have previously died, that is, previous to the death of my widow, the portion of such income, rents and profits so devised and bequeathed to such decedent, shall be used and expended by my executor in the support, education, care and maintenance of such decedent's family, providing they should need or require it; in case they should not need or require it, such portion, so bequeathed to such deceased, shall be allowed to accumulate, to be equally distributed and divided among his or her children, who shall be living at the time of the final distribution of my estate, as hereafter set forth, and I do hereby given and bequeath the same to such children.

9th.- Upon the death of my children, I give, devise and bequeath the rest, residue and remainder of my estate unto my then living grand children, equally, share and share alike, and to their heirs and assigns forever.

10th. - I hereby revoke any former wills or codicils by me made.

11th.-- I hereby nominate and appoint Citizens Trust Company of Fredonia, New York, executor of and trustee under this, my Last Will and Testament, and it shall have the active control, management, care and custody of my estate. And I do hereby give and grant unto it full power, discretion and authority to manage, lease, control, sell, convey, transfer, invest and re-invest the same or any part thereof, when and as it sees fit, and as its judgment dictates, and to do each and every act or thing necessary to be done in order to fully carry out, execute and perform each, every and all the terms, trusts