No. 10991

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

Now on this 26th day of June, 1923, being one of the regular judicial days of the June, Term of said court, this cause comes on to be heard in its regular order; and the plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney R. E. Simpson, and the defendant H. D. Mode, having been three times called in open court to appear, except, demur, answer or plead to the petition of the plaintiff herein, came not, but makes default. And the court having ordered that said defendant is in default and having ordered that the allegations contained in plaintiff's petition be taken as confessed; and it appearing to the court that said defendant has been duly notified more than 30 days prior to this date of the pendency of this action as required by law, by the due and legal service of a summons issued out of this court and served upon the said defendant, H. D. Mode, as required by law; and the court having heard all the evidence and the oral testimony of witnesses sworn and examined in open court, and being fully advised in the premises, and on consideration
