

duly acknowledged by the said E. C. Pickles before Mildred J. Cook, a Notary Public in and for City of St. Louis, State of Missouri, March 11th, 1921.

2nd. That the residence or place of business of the owner or said Lots Twenty-one (21) and Twenty-two (22) in said Block one (1) in Rosemont Heights Addition, to-wit: Rosemont Oil Company, is to this affiant unknown and cannot be ascertained by this affiant by any means within his control; and this affiant, the present owner and holder of said tax certificates, cannot by the exercise of reasonable diligence make service on said owner within the State of Oklahoma.

3rd. That this affiant, the present owner and holder of said tax certificates, has exercised reasonable diligence to make service on said owner, Rosemont Oil Company, but has been unable to do so.

Mary Pritchard and Bruce Rush, each on oath, after being duly sworn, state that Ada Rush, one of the grantees in the deed made by R. C. Stevenson and Georgia M. Stevenson, his wife, to Bruce Rush and Ada Rush, dated September 8, 1916, and recorded in Book 269, page 169, of the record in the office of the County Clerk, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, covering Lot Nine (9) Block Five (5) Lindsay Addition to the City of Tulsa, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, died May 15, 1920; and that at the time of her death she and her husband, Bruce Rush, occupied said land as a homestead and had so occupied same for a considerable time previous to her death.

Affiants further state that at the time of her death she left as her sole and only heirs at law her husband, Bruce Rush; her sons, Harry L. Rush, C. B. Rush, and Park Rush; and her daughters, Mary Pritchard, and Ada Wilson; that she left no other children or descendants of deceased children; and that the above named were all of her heirs, and no other person had any interest in said lot.

Affiants further state that there was an error in the description of said land in said deed and that the lot actually conveyed to said Bruce Rush and Ada Rush by said deed was Lot Nine (9) of Richard's subdivision of Block Five (5) of Lindsay's Addition to the City of Tulsa; and that affiant, Mary Pritchard, is now the owner of the same and has procured quit claim deeds from R. C. Stevenson and his wife, and from Bruce Rush correcting same.
